

Call for Papers

Directions in Legal Education 2018 Conference on Teaching and Learning in Law

1st – 2nd June 2018
The Faculty of Law,
The Chinese University of Hong Kong

The Faculty of Law, the Chinese University of Hong Kong will host a Conference on Teaching and Learning in Law - 'Directions in Legal Education 2018'. The Conference will be held in the Faculty of Law, The Chinese University of Hong Kong on 1st – 2nd June 2018.

The 2018 Conference builds on the success of the Directions in Legal Education Conference in 2016. The conference will provide a space for dialogue exploring innovative approaches in legal education and considering future directions.

Keynote Speakers:

Professor Paul Maharg (Distinguished Professor of Practice – Legal Education at Osgoode Hall Law School, York University, Toronto)

Professor Julian Webb (Professor of Law and Director of the Legal Professions Research Network at Melbourne Law School, the University of Melbourne)

The Faculty of Law now welcomes abstract submissions on any themes and aspects related to legal education including:

- Preparing students for the legal careers of the future
- The future of legal education
- Collaborative approaches to learning
- Design thinking and legal education
- Social enterprise and legal education
- Global citizenship and legal education
- The professional development of legal educators
- E-Learning

Participants will be asked to give a 10 minute presentation of their paper. Those wishing to present in the conference should submit a 250-300 word abstract to Ms. Vivian Chen (vivianc@cuhk.edu.hk) by 11th May 2018. Information enclosed with your abstract should include: title of paper, author name(s); institutional affiliation and email address.